Who should attend? Your local union Executive & their Spouse or Partner as well as your leading activists, union health & safety committee persons and WCB representatives should participate. These special occasions are designed to recognize the efforts of brothers & sisters of your local in representation of your membership on the issues of union activism, community activism, health & safety and Compensation and Disability Rights in the workplace. Your local is encouraged to purchase a table and send as many activists to the dinner as possible in appreciation of their good work. We are counting on your local's support to make this evening a big success.
